How to pay your rent

and other charges

When to pay

Your weekly rent must be paid in advance and is due for payment by noon on Monday of each week. You can make payments on a monthly basis if you choose to pay by Direct Debit.

If you receive Housing Benefit or think you may be entitled to it, you must complete the appropriate forms that are available from your local housing office, so that your claim can be assessed.

If you have a change in circumstances that might affect your Housing Benefit, you must tell the Council and your local housing office straight away. If for any reason you stop receiving Housing Benefit, you will have to start paying the full weekly rent charged by whg immediately.

Your weekly rent will be reviewed in April each year. We will write to you at least one month before any changes are made to tell you what your new rent will be.

If you have a joint tenancy, you are both responsible for rent and service charges.

Ways to pay

We offer a variety of ways to pay your rent. Choose which is most convenient for you.

Direct Debit

Direct Debit is the easiest and most cost-effective way to pay. Once you have set up a Direct Debit, your bank will pay your rent direct from your account usually on the 1st of every month. This is our preferred method of payment.

Standing Order

Set up a standing order and you can make payments to whg from your bank each week, every two weeks, every four weeks or every month – the choice is yours. You will need our bank details in order to complete a standing order form – please ring us for more information.

Direct Payment of Housing Benefit

If you are on Housing Benefit or Job Seekers Allowance, your rent can be paid direct from your benefit. Rent arrears can also be paid direct from your non contributory Job Seekers Allowance, Income Support or pension credit.

Debit Card

To make payments with your debit card, telephone us with your debit card details on 0300 555 6666 between 9am and 5pm.

Frequently asked questions

The information below should help to answer some of the questions you have about your rent.

When should I pay my rent?

Your rent must be paid in advance, whether you pay weekly or monthly. If you pay at a PayPoint or Payzone outlet, at a Post Office or via the internet, you must pay by noon on Monday, as stated in your tenancy agreement, to make sure your payment is credited to your account in the same week.

Who is responsible for rent and service charge payments?

If you have a joint tenancy, you are both responsible for making sure payments are made.

I am on a low income. What help can I get?

You may be entitled to Housing Benefit, which will help towards your rent. Contact us for details. They will also be able to help you fill in the forms and can work out how much you should pay until your claim is processed.

Frequently asked questions

What should I do if my circumstances change?

You must tell us straight away. If your income reduces or your circumstances change in other ways, you may qualify for Housing Benefit and we can advise you about this. If you already get Housing Benefit, any change will affect how much you have to pay.

A change in circumstances could be that someone who lives with you reaches 18, someone moves into or out of your property, or someone living with you has a change in income. Do not delay or you could lose out.

What happens if I do not pay my rent?

If you fall behind with rent payments, we can help you make an arrangement to pay off your arrears and get you back on track.

Remember that any debt could affect you in the following ways:

- we will take action that could result in you losing your home
- your credit rating will be affected
- we would have to give details of the debt to a mortgage provider or another housing association if they asked us for a reference.

Make sure you speak to us as soon as you think you may have difficulty paying your rent. Do not ignore the problem – it will not go away.

Frequently asked questions

What happens if I do not keep to an agreement to reduce my debt?

If you do not keep to an agreement, whg will serve you with a Notice of Seeking Possession. This is the first stage of the legal process to recover possession of your property. If you still do not deal with your rent arrears, a possession order will be awarded against you by the County Court, which will lead to your eviction.

My other debts mean I cannot pay my rent. Who can I talk to?

Contact us at your local housing office and we will make an appointment for you with Walsall Citizens Advice Bureau (CAB). whg has an agreement with the CAB to offer you free, independent money advice to help you prioritise your debts and negotiate for reduced payments or repayment plans. They can also help with Housing Benefit claims, backdating requests, appeals and other welfare benefit advice.
