INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

Witness and victim support

Support and guidance for customers

At whg we recognise the crucial role that witnesses play in helping us to tackle anti-social behaviour. The success of any action that we take depends upon the help and involvement of our residents and witnesses.

We are committed to providing victims and witnesses with support throughout any complaint of anti-social behaviour. We understand that being a witness can be a stressful experience and we will fully support witnesses and victim in any way that we can.

whg Community Safety Team are full trained and accredited to:

- provide emotional support
- assist in completing diary sheets
- take witness statements
- provide full information on the court process
- support throughout the case
- provide full after care support.

How we can help

In every case the victim/witness will be provided with a dedicated case handler who will give one to one support throughout and keep the complainant informed of any progress with the case. The level and type of support will be tailored to meet the needs of the individual and will be agreed with the victim/witnesses and may include:

- emotional support
- installation of safety and security devices (such as window locks, door viewers, cctv)
- witness statement taking
