

Gary Fulford

Group Chief Executive

Gary joined whg in 2004 as one of five Local Trust Chief Executives. Promoted to Managing Director in 2007 with responsibility for all housing and asset management services, he was appointed as Group Chief Executive in November 2009.

Gary has over 30 years' experience of working in the housing sector in the Midlands and South West. Before joining whg, he was Group Director of Operations for Somer Housing Group in Bath. Prior to this he was Regional Director for Jephson Homes, Director of Operations for Spa Housing Group, and Regional Director for Housing 21.

Gary is Vice Chair of the West Midlands Regional Committee of the National Housing Federation and a Board Member of West Midlands Housing Association Partnership. He is chair of whg Developments Limited and whg Treasury PLC Boards and is a member of VIEW, whg Trading Company Limited, Anthem Homes Limited and Buy for Good CIC Boards.

Away from work, Gary enjoys playing and watching football. Although he supports Wolverhampton Wanderers, he admits to a soft spot for Walsall Football Club. Gary enjoys travelling throughout the UK and abroad and in recent years has enjoyed visits to Nepal.

Gary is proud of whg's charity fundraising efforts, after successfully raising tens of thousands of pounds for good causes. whg are currently supporting Cancer Research as part of the Charity of the Year scheme.

For the latest updates, follow Gary on Twitter @whggaryf

MAY 2018