

Martin Robertson

Corporate Director of Resources
& Growth

In his current role at whg, one of the Midlands' leading and most successful providers of high quality homes, Martin is responsible for finance, development, growth activities, merger planning and company acquisitions.

Martin is a Chartered Accountant who has held senior roles in retail, wholesale and higher education. He has over 20 years of experience in housing as a senior finance professional.

Martin's involvement with the housing sector started in 1996, when he joined the Bournville Village Trust. Three years later, at Optima Community Association, he was involved in the successful stock transfer of 3,000 homes from Birmingham City Council.

Martin joined whg in 2002 and played an integral role in the stock transfer of homes from Walsall Council. Since then he led the public bond issue in 2014 as the Group prepared for its current expansion. Today the focus is on growth of whg across the Midlands, both through development and acquisition.

In his personal life, Martin enjoys reading and listening to music. He is on the board of Walsave Credit Union, a thriving local social enterprise.
